

Advisory Board, Institute for the Study of "Race" & Social Justice

Dr. Ricky Lee Allen, Language, Literacy, Sociocultural Studies, College of Education

Dr. Shiv Desai, Language, Literacy, Sociocultural Studies, College of Education

Dr. Kiran Katira, Director, Community Engagement Center

Dr. Karla Kingsley, Teacher Education and Educational Leadership and Policy, College of Education

Dr. Tyson Marsh, Teacher Education and Educational Leadership and Policy, College of Education

Dr. Jamal Martin, Director, Peace Studies; Africana Studies, College of Arts and Sciences; Clinical Assistant Professor Family and Community Medicine Department, School of Medicine

Dr. Nancy López, Sociology, College of Arts and Science

Dr. Anne Simpson, Family and Community Medicine Department, School of Medicine

RACE AND SOCIAL JUSTICE GRADUATE CERTIFICATE FORM C PROSOSAL

We invite you and your colleagues to submit syllabi for a Form C application to the UNM Faculty Senate create a graduate certificate in "Race & Social Justice" at UNM. In partnership with the Diversity Council, the Institute Advisory Board (list pasted below) is in the planning stages of developing the graduate certificate would offer graduate and professional students across colleges and department the opportunity to have a transcribed specialization in "Race and Social Justice" that builds on interdisciplinary research and praxis from multiple scholars across UNM. This certificate contributes to UNM's portfolio of innovative interdisciplinary engaged scholarship on race and social justice.

If you are interested in submitting a syllabi please email Dr. Nancy López, Director, Institute for the Study of "Race" & Social Justice, Email: nlopez@unm.edu as soon as possible. We are planning to submit the Form Cs through the Faculty Senate committee by early Fall 2015. Please invite other colleagues that may also be interested in submitting syllabi for a graduate certificate in "Race & Social Justice" at UNM Program, Department, or College.